My dear V. & E. & Goldy & Ther.

Your most welcome letter of the 9th arrived safely and we were glad to hear that all was well with you so far.
We trust that you have now reached your own home and settled
under your own olive and fig trees.

Might I ask you to send a post card to
M. MacLer assuring him of my financial responsibility for the photo of Galland?
I am just writing to him and the matter,

as you know, is one of haste. If he can set about getting the photo at once it will be a great help. With very best greetings to all of you - self and family. Always yours

Wm. MacLer
